NEXORA TECHNOLOGIES PVT. LTD.

Employee Handbook & Human Resource Policy

Document ID: NEX-HR-001
Version: 2.1
Effective Date: 1 January 2026
Last Updated: 15 October 2026
Department: Human Resources
Applicable To: All full-time employees, interns and trainees
Head Office: Bengaluru, Karnataka, India

---

1. About the Company

Nexora Technologies Pvt. Ltd. is a fictional technology company established in 2018. The company provides software development, cloud computing, artificial intelligence, cybersecurity and IT consulting services.

The company currently employs approximately 420 people across its Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Pune and Noida offices.

Nexora believes in maintaining a professional, inclusive, secure and productive workplace. This handbook defines the policies and procedures that employees must follow during their employment.

All employees are responsible for reading and understanding these policies. Questions regarding any policy should be directed to the Human Resources department at hr@nexoratech.in

2. Office Working Hours and Attendance Policy

2.1 Standard Office Hours

The standard working schedule for full-time employees is:

- Monday to Friday: 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM.
- Saturday and Sunday: Weekly holidays.
- Total working time: 40 hours per week.
- Lunch break: 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM.
- Short breaks: Two 15-minute breaks per working day.

Employees are expected to arrive before 9:45 AM. A grace period of 15 minutes is permitted.

2.2 Flexible Working Hours

Employees may request flexible working hours with approval from their reporting manager.

Approved flexible schedules may start between 8:00 AM and 11:00 AM. Employees must complete eight working hours per day, excluding lunch breaks.

Flexible working hours do not change the requirement to attend mandatory meetings, client calls or team activities.

2.3 Attendance Recording

Employees must record attendance using the company's biometric attendance system or approved employee portal.

Employees working remotely must mark their attendance through the official HR portal.

If an employee forgets to record attendance, they must submit an attendance correction request within 48 hours.

A maximum of three attendance correction requests are permitted per month without additional HR approval.

2.4 Late Arrival

An employee arriving after 9:45 AM will be marked late.

If an employee records more than five late arrivals in a calendar month, the reporting manager may issue a formal warning.

Employees arriving more than 30 minutes late without prior approval may be required to compensate for the lost working hours.

Repeated attendance violations may result in disciplinary action.

3. Leave and Holiday Policy

3.1 Annual Leave Entitlement

Full-time employees are entitled to the following leave categories:

Leave Type	Annual Entitlement
Casual Leave (CL)	8 days
Sick Leave (SL)	8 days
Earned Leave (EL)	15 days
Optional Holidays	2 days

Maternity Leave	As applicable under law
Paternity Leave	10 working days

The annual leave cycle runs from 1 January to 31 December.

3.2 Casual Leave

Casual leave is provided for personal emergencies and unexpected situations.

- Employees receive eight casual leave days annually.
- A maximum of two consecutive casual leave days can be taken.
- Casual leave should normally be requested at least one working day in advance.
- Unused casual leave expires on 31 December.
- Casual leave cannot be carried forward to the next year.
- Casual leave cannot be converted into cash.

3.3 Sick Leave

Sick leave may be used when employees are unable to work due to illness or medical reasons.

- Employees receive eight sick leave days annually.
- Medical documentation is required for sick leave exceeding two consecutive working days.
- Employees must inform their reporting manager before 10:00 AM on the first day of absence.
- Unused sick leave cannot be encashed.
- Sick leave cannot be transferred to another employee.

3.4 Earned Leave

Earned leave is provided for planned vacations and personal commitments.

- Employees receive 15 earned leave days annually.
- Earned leave requests must be submitted at least seven calendar days in advance.
- Employees may carry forward a maximum of 30 earned leave days.
- Earned leave exceeding the carry-forward limit expires at the end of the year.
- Earned leave encashment is permitted only at the time of separation, subject to company policy and applicable law.

3.5 Maternity and Paternity Leave

Eligible female employees receive maternity benefits in accordance with applicable Indian law.

Eligible employees are required to submit maternity leave applications and supporting documentation to HR at least 30 days before the expected leave commencement date, wherever reasonably possible.

Male employees are eligible for 10 working days of company-provided paternity leave following the birth or adoption of a child.

Paternity leave must normally be used within 90 days of the birth or adoption.

3.6 Leave Approval Process

The reporting manager is responsible for reviewing and approving ordinary leave requests.

HR approval is additionally required for:

- Leave exceeding 10 consecutive working days.
- Leave without pay.
- Extended medical leave.
- Any leave requiring special consideration.

An employee must not assume that a leave request has been approved merely because it has been submitted.

4. Official Holiday Calendar

The company observes the following official holidays for the 2026 calendar year.

Date	Holiday	Category
26 January 2026	Republic Day	National
4 March 2026	Holi	Company
3 April 2026	Good Friday	Company
15 August 2026	Independence Day	National
2 October 2026	Gandhi Jayanti	National
20 October 2026	Dussehra	Company
8 November 2026	Diwali	Company

25 December 2026 Christmas Company

The company observes eight holidays listed in this calendar.

Employees may additionally select two optional holidays from the company's approved optional holiday list.

Employees working in different states may receive additional regional holidays depending on local statutory requirements.

If a mandatory national holiday falls on a weekend, the applicable holiday arrangement will be communicated by HR.

The holiday calendar may be revised due to government notifications or operational requirements.

5. Work From Home Policy

Nexora follows a hybrid working model.

Eligible employees may work remotely for a maximum of two days per week, subject to manager approval.

5.1 Eligibility

Employees become eligible for the regular hybrid arrangement after completing three months of employment.

The following employees may not automatically qualify:

- Employees undergoing initial training.
- Employees handling restricted client information.
- Employees working in roles requiring physical infrastructure access.
- Employees serving a formal disciplinary notice.

5.2 Remote Working Requirements

Employees working remotely must:

1. Maintain a stable internet connection.
2. Remain available during official working hours.
3. Attend scheduled online meetings.
4. Protect confidential company information.
5. Use company-approved devices and software.
6. Update task progress in the company's project management system.

Employees must obtain manager approval at least one working day before their planned remote working day.

Working remotely does not mean employees can work from any country without permission. International remote work requires written approval from HR and the department head.

6. Employee Code of Conduct

Every employee must maintain professional behaviour and respect colleagues, customers and business partners.

The following activities are prohibited:

- Workplace harassment or discrimination.
- Sharing confidential company information without authorization.
- Misusing company equipment.
- Falsifying attendance or expense records.
- Accepting unauthorized payments or gifts from vendors.
- Using company systems for illegal activities.
- Threatening or intimidating colleagues.
- Misrepresenting professional qualifications or experience.

Employees must disclose any potential conflict of interest to HR.

Employees must not use company resources for personal commercial projects without written authorization.

Violations may result in counselling, written warnings, suspension or termination, depending on severity and applicable law.

7. Privacy and Data Protection Policy

Nexora recognizes the importance of employee privacy and personal data protection.

The company collects employee information for recruitment, payroll, benefits administration, attendance management, legal compliance and business operations.

7.1 Information Collected

The company may collect:

- Full name and contact details.
- Residential address.

- Educational qualifications.
- Employment history.
- Bank account information.
- Tax identification information.
- Emergency contact details.
- Attendance and leave records.
- Performance evaluation records.
- Company system access logs.

7.2 Purpose of Data Collection

Employee information is used only for legitimate employment-related purposes, including:

- Salary processing.
- Tax and statutory compliance.
- Employee benefits.
- Performance reviews.
- Workplace security.
- Internal audits.
- Emergency communication.

7.3 Data Storage and Security

Employee records are stored in access-controlled HR systems.

Access to personal employee information is restricted to authorized HR personnel, payroll administrators and other personnel with a legitimate business requirement.

The company uses encryption, authentication controls, access logs and regular security reviews to protect sensitive information.

Employee records must not be downloaded to personal devices unless explicitly authorized.

7.4 Data Retention

Employee records are retained during employment and for seven years following separation, unless a longer period is required by law or a legal proceeding.

Financial and tax records may be retained according to applicable statutory requirements.

7.5 Employee Privacy Rights

Employees may request access to their personal information, correction of inaccurate records and clarification about how their data is used.

Privacy-related requests should be submitted to privacy@nexoratech.example.

The company aims to respond to standard privacy requests within 15 working days.

Employees must not access another employee's HR records without authorization.

8. Information Security Policy

All employees are responsible for protecting company information and digital infrastructure.

8.1 Password Security

- Passwords must contain at least 12 characters.
- Passwords must not be shared with colleagues.
- Multi-factor authentication must be enabled on company accounts.
- Passwords must not be reused across personal and company accounts.
- Suspected credential compromise must be reported immediately.

8.2 Device Security

Employees must use approved company devices for accessing restricted business information.

Devices must have updated operating systems, endpoint protection and screen-lock mechanisms.

Lost or stolen company devices must be reported to the IT Security team within one hour of discovery.

8.3 Data Sharing

Employees must not send confidential files through personal email accounts or unauthorized file-sharing services.

External sharing requires approval from the relevant department manager.

Security incidents must be reported to security@nexoratech.example.

9. Salary, Payroll and Benefits

9.1 Salary Processing

Employee salaries are processed monthly.

- Payroll period: First to last calendar day of each month.

- Salary payment date: Last working day of the month.
- Payment method: Direct bank transfer.
- Salary slips: Available through the employee portal.

If the salary payment date falls on a bank holiday, payment will normally be processed on the preceding working day.

9.2 Benefits

Eligible full-time employees may receive:

- Group medical insurance with coverage up to ₹5,00,000.
- Personal accident insurance.
- Provident Fund benefits as applicable.
- Gratuity as applicable under law.
- Annual performance review.
- Learning and development allowance of ₹12,000 per financial year.
- Internet reimbursement of up to ₹1,000 per month for eligible remote employees.

The learning allowance may be used for approved technical courses, professional certifications and educational resources.

Unused learning allowance expires at the end of the financial year and cannot be transferred or encashed.

10. Performance Evaluation and Promotion

Employee performance is reviewed twice annually.

The formal performance review periods are:

- First review: January to June.
- Second review: July to December.

Performance evaluations consider:

1. Quality of work.
2. Productivity and task completion.
3. Technical and professional skills.
4. Communication and collaboration.
5. Problem-solving ability.

6. Attendance and professional conduct.

Promotions are based on demonstrated performance, available positions, business requirements and leadership approval.

Employees are not guaranteed a promotion solely because they have completed a specific period of service.

11. Training and Professional Development

Nexora encourages employees to improve their technical and professional skills.

New employees must complete the mandatory onboarding programme within their first 10 working days.

The onboarding programme includes:

- Company introduction.
- HR policies.
- Information security training.
- Workplace conduct.
- Department-specific orientation.

Employees may request reimbursement for approved external training programmes.

Training reimbursement above ₹15,000 requires department head approval.

Employees must submit proof of course completion to HR before reimbursement is processed.

12. Internship and Trainee Policy

Nexora offers internship programmes in software development, AI engineering, cybersecurity, business analysis and product management.

Standard internship duration is three months.

Interns receive a fixed monthly stipend of ₹10,000, subject to the terms of their internship agreement.

Interns are entitled to:

- Weekly holidays on Saturday and Sunday.
- Two casual leave days per month.
- Access to approved learning resources.
- A designated reporting mentor.

- Performance feedback at the end of each month.

Interns are not automatically eligible for employee medical insurance, earned leave or other full-time employee benefits.

A completion certificate is issued only after successful completion of the internship and submission of assigned deliverables.

Internship extension requires written approval from the department manager and HR.

13. Workplace Harassment and Grievance Policy

Nexora maintains a zero-tolerance approach toward workplace harassment, discrimination, bullying and retaliation.

Employees may report workplace concerns through:

- Their reporting manager.
- The Human Resources department.
- The designated Internal Committee for complaints covered under applicable POSH legislation.
- The confidential grievance email: grievance@nexoratech.example.

Complaints will be handled confidentially to the extent reasonably possible.

The company aims to acknowledge ordinary employee grievances within three working days and provide an initial response within 10 working days.

Complaints involving sexual harassment will be handled by the Internal Committee under the applicable legal framework and statutory timelines.

Retaliation against an employee who raises a genuine complaint is prohibited.

14. Employee Resignation and Exit Policy

Employees wishing to resign must submit a formal resignation through the HR portal.

The standard notice period is:

Employee Category	Notice Period
Junior Employees	30 days
Mid-Level Employees	45 days
Senior Employees	60 days
Department Heads	90 days

Interns	7 days

The notice period begins on the date the resignation is formally acknowledged by HR.

The company may approve notice period reduction or buyout subject to contractual terms and management approval.

Before the final working day, employees must:

- Return company equipment.
- Transfer pending project responsibilities.
- Submit outstanding expense claims.
- Complete knowledge transfer.
- Obtain required departmental clearances.

Final settlement is processed within the applicable statutory and contractual timelines.

Experience letters and relieving letters are issued after completion of the required exit formalities.

15. Policy Amendments and Interpretation

Nexora reserves the right to modify, replace or withdraw policies based on operational requirements, changes in law and business needs.

All major policy revisions will be communicated through official company email.

Employees are responsible for reviewing updated policies.

Where a company policy conflicts with applicable Indian law, applicable law will prevail.

This handbook is intended as a general guide to company employment policies and does not replace an individual employment agreement or applicable statutory requirements.

Document Owner: Head of Human Resources
Approved By: Chief Operating Officer
Document Status: Active
Next Scheduled Review: 1 January 2027